ETDs

- important type of grey literature
 - document current state of research, contribute to it
 - long-term preservation is of a great importance
- ETDs collected on a non-compulsory basis until recently
 - access to them regulated by directives at particular faculties
- things changed after the infamous „Pilsen scandal“
- in May 2010, provision no. 6/2010 was issued
 - giving in through the Student Information System (SIS) only

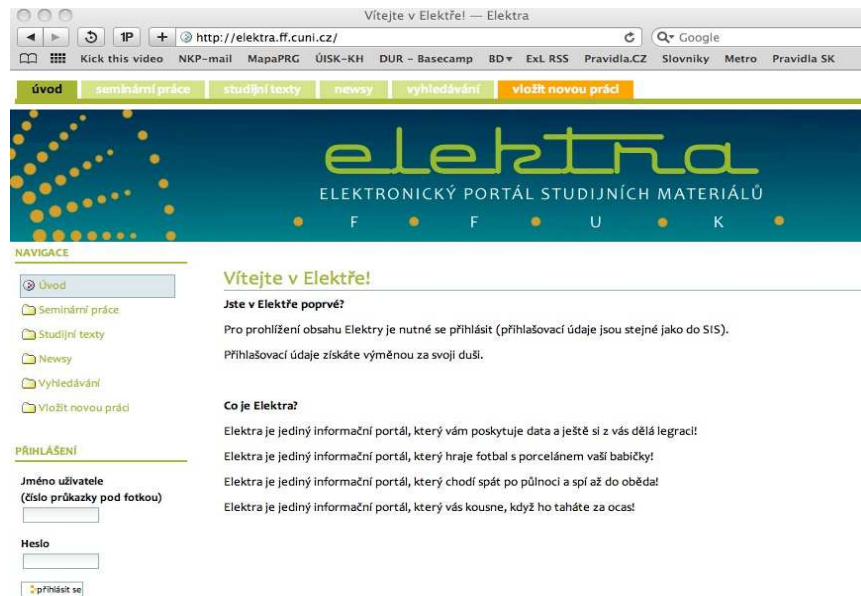

SIS → DUR → Central Catalog

- once the ETD is completed in the SIS, full-text with attachments and metadata are sent to the DUR
 - metadata records are exported as Marc21 and sent to the Central Catalog
 - enriched with the URLs linking to the respective full-text in the DUR
- system number of the record in the Central Catalog and persistent identifier of full-texts from the DUR are sent to the SIS
 - in case of an update, duplicity may be eliminated
 - all information from the SIS are of a higher importance
- OAI output for the NUSL (M21)
 - metadata records not sent to the Union Catalogue of CZ
